Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

CHARLESTON, S.C. — Logicon Inc., Logicon Information Solutions, Reston, Va., is being awarded a $16,013,388 indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity, time and material contract to provide engineering and technical support services and material for the design, installation, and update/maintenance of new and existing Command, Control, Computer, and Intelligence (C4I) systems that support the fleet and joint warfighter. This contract contains four one-year options, which, if exercised, will bring the total cumulative value of the contract to $81,787,077. Work will be performed in Reston, Va. (17.5%) and at the Space and Naval Warfare (SPAWAR) System Center facilities at Norfolk, Va. (52.5%) and Charleston, S.C. (30%). The work will commence April 2000 and is expected to be completed by March 2001. Contract funds in the amount of $50,000 have been obligated and will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was procured on a competitive basis with the solicitation posted on the SPAWAR Business Opportunities Web page and seven offers received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston, S.C. is the contracting activity (N65236-00-D-6707).
